

Major Assignment #1: The First Role

Learning Outcomes:

- Load and unload an SLR film camera
- Proper exposure use of light meter
- Develop film
- Create a contact sheet
- Enlarge a negative into a positive print

Subject Matter:

- For your first roll of film, photograph anything and everything that you see around you
- It can be of a person, place or thing
- Be open, be creative, use your imagination!

Submission Envelop:

- Name/Block & Decorated
- Labelled negative sleeve with cut negatives
- Contact sheet
- 3 final prints (3.5" x 5")
- Some test strips and notes of exposure times if necessary

Sketchbook:

- 1 print pasted into your sketchbook
- Title your photograph
- 1 paragraph about your image: Where did you shoot this image? Why did you take this photo? What does it mean to you? How was your process in the darkroom?

Name: _____ Block: _____

Major Assignment #1: The First Role
Teacher Assessment Rubric

	Exceeding (4)	Meeting (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)
Proper Exposure/ Sharp focus Weight 2.0	Negatives and positive prints have excellent exposure and sharp focus.	Negatives and positive prints have proper exposure and sharp focus.	Negatives and positive prints are approaching a proper exposure and sharp focus.	Negatives and positive prints do not have proper exposure or sharp focus.
Creativity Weight 2.0	The student uses their imagination to produce their negatives and positive prints.	The student uses creativity to produce their negative and positive prints.	The student uses some creativity to produce their negatives and positive prints.	The student uses very little creativity to produce their negatives and positive prints.
Presentation (Tight borders & no dust) Weight 2.0	The student showcases a high level presentation.	The student showcases a good level of presentation.	The student showcases a satisfactory level of presentation.	The student showcases a minimal level of presentation.
Organization (All requirements submitted) Weight 2.0	The student's work is highly organized and submitted all the required documents.	The student's work is organized submitted all the required documents.	The student's work is relatively organized submitted some of the required documents.	The student's work is not organized and did not submit the required documents.

Total: /32 marks Comments:

Requirements:

1. Submission envelop: name/block & decorated _____
2. Labelled negative sleeve with cut negatives _____

3. Contact sheet _____
4. 3 final prints (3.5" x 5") _____
5. Sketchbook: 1/3 prints glued into with title and description _____