

Mayumi Caunter

Congratulation, Mayumi! Days past so quick. Arriving an hour early at the school on the first day, sitting in the cafeteria alone and nervous. A teacher came and asking to help him carry boxes. You got chocolate in return! You told me this with a chuckle later on that day. It melted my heart. Michael, while looking for a baby picture for the yearbook we relived your journey from an always smiling toddler to a self-assured young man. During this time we were constantly impressed by your commitment to the well-being of your family and friends, and your devotion to your school work and sport. We are very proud of you. Carry on with this mindset and enjoy your journey through life. Love, Dad, Mom and Lauren

Kaveh Gerami

When he's small, he's adventure
And action and noise!
A link to the wonderful world
Of small boys.
As he grows, he's a mixture
Of mischief and good,
He's a joyous reward
Of parenthood.
All at once, he's a man
And you're proud he's the one
You so lovingly point to
And say, "He's Our son!"
Love always and forever
Dad and Mom

Joel Hamersley

Joel is blessed with many gifts which we hope will help him make a living. These include sciences, people skills, and trash talking, which will make him ideally suited for managing an NBA team, or US politics - although these are unlikely vocations for a Seycove grad. He has also demonstrated an aptitude for storytelling. Early in life he was short of good material, telling long charming stories about things like arguments over books in the library. But grade 12 has provide lots of good material! We look forward to watching the chapters unfold. Thank you Seycove!

Marley Harman

You're one of the two joys in our lives. You're a beautiful strong woman inside and out who we know will go far in whatever you wish to pursue. You inspire us in every way, you're our sunshine on a cloudy day. We are so very proud of you and all your accomplishments through the years. Your dedication, perseverance, kindness, caring and compassionate nature have gotten you to where you are today. You and you alone will do whatever it is you wish to do now and in the future. CONGRADULATIONS MARLEY! XOXO

Kirby Harris

"Kirby, at Seycove," took a chapter from every genre as you explored music, drama, cooking, politics, adventure, mystery and sports. You always kept the readers guessing as to which direction you would head next. We have always been proud to be the family of such a strong main character who sticks to her convictions even when others disagree. This book is done and we can't wait to see what happens next in, "Kirby, The University Years." - Love, Mom, Dad and Micky.
