17 years ago you came into our lives and changed us forever. We will be eternally grateful for the precious gift we received in you. Your journey has been far from easy but the strength and courage you have shown as you have walked the road put in front of you is something we have marvelled at. "Even in times of trouble we have a joyful confidence, knowing that our pressures will develop in us patient endurance. And patient endurance will refine our character, and proven character leads us back to hope." Romans 5:3-4... and so the adventure begins!

Alana Bruneau

Dear Alana,
You have grown into an amazing young woman and we are so incredibly proud of you and all you have achieved. May you continue to be blessed in all that you do. Remember to chase the things you love, enjoy the moment, be you, embrace life, live joyfully, keep shining your brilliant light, smile and laugh often, and to breathe. And always remember to believe in yourself the way we believe in you. With love, forever and always, Your "parental units" xoxoxo

Nigel Burgart

Congratulations Nigell!

You have grown into a handsome, intelligent, and caring young man. We've enjoyed watching your leadership and success in athletics, and we're proud of you for facing and overcoming some challenges in your endeavour to excel in academics. Thanks to you and "the gang" for entertaining us with those "intellectual conversations"! Your quick wit and great sense of humor has brought a whole lot of laughter into our home, and will serve you well in the "real world". Stay true and believe in yourself, you have so much to offer. Oh, and thanks for the trail of socks! :)

With love and support always - Mom, Dad, Desi, and Rosie

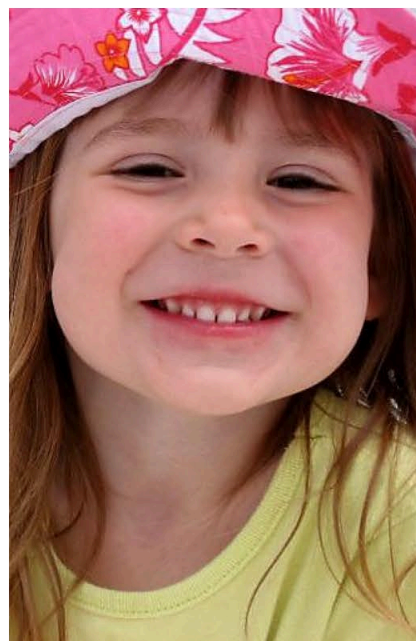

Cristina Calderwood

Cristina you are a beautiful soul. Thanks for your enduring kindness. We are so proud of the compassion you show others. Since your first words, the chatter hasn't stopped; but seriously, your gift for connecting with people is something we truly admire. We are excited for your next phase in life and hope that you follow your passions and pursue a life that brings you happiness. Work hard but remember to have fun and keep putting smiles on peoples' faces. Never forget, "Life is worth living as long as there's a laugh in it." Love always Mom, Dad & Sean.

Stevie Castagna

"Funny that 17 years later you are still wearing a jean jacket and driving a red vehicle! Stevie, we love your ability to determine a path to whatever objective you set, and then calmly follow that path with purpose and passion. Once you could walk and talk like those around you, you have (almost always) been a pleasure to parent. You were fortunate to broaden your high school experience by attending more than one school, but we are excited and proud to see you graduate from Seycove, as a well grounded young man surrounded by a wonderful community with so many friends and memories. Dream big, and you'll make it happen."

Linnea Chute

Congratulations Linnea! It's been rewarding and fun to watch you grow up. You've earned a group of caring, dedicated friends and have remained determined to be helpful to those in need. It's been inspiring to see the courage and commitment you've brought to your choir performances, and the care you've extended to others through the mental health club, perform for pride, and many other projects. Perhaps a career as an advocate is in store? Whatever path you choose, you will always have the love and support of your family.
